Mustard Seed Faith

"This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith" (1 John 5:4). By faith, ask God to help you help yourself. Do not run from your challenges. Get out of a lackadaisical mode and accelerate!

True faith will cause us to make preparations. "Faith without works is dead" (James 2:26). There is no substitute for preparation; it influences our attitude and make us overcomers. Our attitude becomes a discipline and causes us not to give up. This develops into a passion.

Passion produces a result in which God gets the glory! Passion becomes our motivation and gives a mental toughness to persevere. Whatever vision we have, we need to work at it. Faith produces results as it causes us to envision what is going to be.

Do not give up hope if you have not yet reached your goal. Change your perspective. Realize that you are a person in transition.

Mark 4:30-32 contains the parable of the mustard seed: "a grain of mustard seed...when sown...is less than all the seeds....it growth up, and becometh greater than all herbs." Keep the faith!

Do not be caught up with the "start and stop syndrome". Your talents will remain unused. If this has become a routine with you, learn to recultivate yourself. Build your faith.

The tiny mustard seed must be planted in good soil, even as we need to surround ourselves with positive people and influences. Provide the right environment and get rid of distractions. It takes patience and time to see results.

The mustard seed first shoots down roots to get a good foundation. Even so, our faith needs to be rooted in the Word and attain some depth to form a stable foundation. Only afterwards is an upward growth visible.

Do not get discouraged, but believe the process. Trust your effort; it is working. "For whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Galatians 6:7).

What are you doing to cultivate your dream? When you become discouraged, look at the mustard seed. Getting desirable results is just a matter of time and cultivation. Quitters never win, and winners never quit. Trust that God will be your help in the time of need.
